

Multiple JUNO | CCMA | ECMA Nominee

GOLD SELLING RECORDING ARTIST

CHRIS CUMMINGS

Multiple CCMA & JUNO Award nominee Chris Cummings is one of New Brunswick's most enduring music artists. A successful singer and songwriter since 1994, he continues to prove his talent for pushing the boundaries of country music while managing to stay true to his roots. So far, he has achieved an impressive sixteen Top 20 radio singles in Canada with 9 of those songs charting in the Top 10 and two of the singles reaching all the way to number 1. Numbers like those make him New Brunswick's most accomplished country music radio artist of the modern era and ensure his performances are packed with memorable hit songs. To date, he has released 6 albums, the most recent called Give Me Tonight features the hit single Leavings Not An Option co-written with legendary, award-winning songwriter Don Schlitz (Forever And Ever Amen, The Gambler.) Work on his next album is currently underway with plans for release in fall 2014.

Chris' debut album Somewhere Inside released on the Warner Bros. Nashville label, achieved GOLD status (over 50,000 in sales) with his combined career album sales as an artist topping 120,000. As a writer, his songs have appeared on over 1.5 million units sold and have been recorded by notable American music stars Alabama, Ricochet, Daryl Singletary, and David Frizzell. The chart topping hit single recorded by Alabama called Twentieth Century, also co-written by Chris and Don Schlitz, was nominated for a GRAMMY Award in 2001.

In addition to several chart-topping music videos on CMT, Chris has been nominated for 3 JUNO Awards, numerous Canadian Country Music Awards (CCMA), East Coast Music Awards (ECMA) and won the top prize for Outstanding New Artist at the RPM Big Country Music Awards. His many accomplishments have garnered him recognition in his home Province of New Brunswick where he was designated New Brunswick Ambassador by the Province's Premier for his outstanding work in music and his support of New Brunswick music artists and companies.

His many years of success have allowed him to remain at the forefront of country music in Canada; he's appeared on the cover, with a feature article in worldwide music publication International Musician Magazine. His music is featured in Alliance Films worldwide movie release called SERVITUDE and he has performed on several television programs including The Ralph Emery Show, Crook and Chase, Nashville Now, Music City Tonight, CTV's Canada AM, CBC, CMT, IWK Telethon for Children, Christmas Daddies and more.
